

Transnational Histories of Switzerland

24 March 2016

University of Zurich

Rämistrasse 59
(RAA)

Room E-30

The purpose of this workshop is to discuss how to write a history of Switzerland from a transnational perspective. Together with historians who are experts in transnational Belgium and transnational Japanese histories, we will explore the challenges that arise when a transnational framework is applied to the study of a national object.

Registration by e-mail: schaerb@ethz.ch.

Daniel Laqua (Newcastle), Christophe Verbruggen (Gent)

9-10.30 Beyond Belgium: Encounters, Exchanges and Entanglements, c. 1900 – 1925

Martin Dusinberre (Zurich)

11-12.30 Japan, the global empire state (1868–1945)

Thomas David (Lausanne), Pierre Eichenberger (Zurich), Lea Haller

14-15.30 (Geneva), Bernhard C. Schär (Zurich), Christa Wirth (Zurich)

Transnational Histories of Switzerland

Universität
Zürich

ZENTRUM
GESCHICHTE DES WISSENS

UNIL | Université de Lausanne