

Roman Justice between Virtue and Law

Workshop Program, ERC Project “The Just City”

Rome, November 11-12, 2021, Istituto Svizzero

Thursday, November 11

10:30AM: Welcome, coffee & tea

11AM-12:30PM: Opening speech Professor Christoph Horn (Bonn), followed by Q & A

12:30-2PM: Lunch break

2-4PM: Discussion among team members

4-5PM: Presentation Professor Johan Olsthoorn (Leuven)

Friday, November 12

8:30-10AM: René de Nicolay (UZH/Princeton):
“The Relationship between status rei publicae and mores in Cicero’s Republic”
Comments by Professor Yelena Baraz (Princeton)

10-11:30AM: Benjamin Straumann (UZH):
“Individual Rights in Cicero and Livy” (co-authored with Dan Edelstein, Stanford)
Comments by Professor Valentina Arena (UCL)

11:30-1PM: Nikolas Hächler (UZH):
“Justice and the Roman State in Lactantius and Augustine”
Comments by Professor Christoph Horn (Bonn)

1PM-2:30PM: Lunch break

2:30-4PM: Jeff Dymond (UZH):
“Gentili’s Theory of Association in Context”
Comments by Professor Johan Olsthoorn (Leuven)

4-5:30PM: Signy Gutnick Allen (UZH):
“A Title to Another’s Plenty: Rights of Charity in Locke’s Political Thought”
Comments by Dr Tim Stuart-Buttle (York)