

Ethics in the Making

Workshop Program

Friday, 21 April 2023

Institute for the History of Medicine
Prof. Dr. Hubert Steinke
Dr. Magaly Tornay
Izel Demirbas

Centre for Health Law and Healthcare Management
Prof. Dr. Franziska Sprecher
Marina Rickenbacher

09:30 — 09:45 Welcome by Franziska Sprecher & Hubert Steinke

1 EXPERIMENTING

09:45 — 10:30 Human Subjects as Contract Workers: the Labor Origins of Ethics Review
Laura Stark (Vanderbilt)

10:30 — 11:15 The Creation of the 'Moral Scientist' through Research Ethics in Switzerland
Izel Demirbas (Bern)

11:15 — 11:30 COFFEE BREAK

2 SETTING NORMS

11:30 — 12:15 The Transition from Bioethics to Biolaw: Opportunities and Challenges
Roberto Andorno (Zürich)

12:15 — 13:45 LUNCH BREAK

13:45 — 14:30 The Mighty Norms? Standard-Setting in Transplantation and the Problem of Legitimacy
Marina Rickenbacher (Bern)

3 MORAL MATERIAL

14:30 — 15:15 Valuing the Body. A Moral History of Human Tissues in Twentieth-Century
Medicine
Noortje Jacobs (Rotterdam)

15:15 — 15:30 COFFEE BREAK

15:30 — 16:15 'Will Waste turn into gold?' Value and Values in the History of Bioethics
Magaly Tornay (Bern)

16:15 — 17:00 The Natural World of Man: Valuing Life in Postwar Conservation
Duncan Wilson (Manchester)

17:00 — 17:40 Final Discussion

19:00 DINNER

DISCUSSANTS: Aude Fauvel (Lausanne), Ludger Fittkau (Darmstadt), Andreas Frewer (Erlangen), Petra Gehring (Darmstadt), Franziska Sprecher (Bern), Hubert Steinke (Bern).

VENUE: Institute for the History of Medicine, Bühlstrasse 26, Seminarraum, Ground Floor